

Camping Mad Libs Stories

Every summer I get totally amped and _____ to go (adjective)
camping in the deep _____ forests. It's good to get (adjective)
away from it all - but not too away, like in getting lost!
Last year, my friends and I went hiking and got lost for _____ hour(s). We started off on a _____ adventure, (number) (adjective)
but we kept losing the trail, night began to fall, and when we heard the howls of a _____ we began to (large animal) panic. It was getting darker and our flashlights were running off _____. I'm sure glad my pet _____, _____, (noun) (animal) (boy's name) was with us. He is one gifted creature, because he was able to guide us back by _____ the _____ s'mores (verb-ing) (adjective)
by the campfire. This year, before setting off on a journey, I'll be sure to have working flashlights - and of course, my buddy _____.
(same boy's name as before)
