

A Chair for My Mother

Name: _____

Date: _____

Read each sentence, cut and paste into a graphic organizer in the order they happened in the story.

Grandma enjoys sitting by the window and talking to everyone who walks by.

My mother and I ran when we saw two big fire trucks outside our house.

I love going to the Blue Tile diner to help Josephine and my mother.

I loved going to the bank to change all our coins to bills.

My mother and I love looking at the tulips as we walk through the neighborhood.

Sometimes mama is so tired when she comes home from work, that she falls asleep.