

Easter was when Hope
in person surprised the whole world by coming
forward from the future
into the present.

