

BRAIN TEASERS

ANSWERS

- Coast: 1 → 20.
- Coast: 1 → 1 m greater (Fig. 17.17^a).
- More weight you add, more distance from center.
- More weight you add? (Fig. 17.17^b).
- More weight you add?
- The direction $\theta = 0^\circ$ was participant.
- Day the following calendar month: 12/26, 2009.
- Day the following calendar month: 12/26.
- Write the following sentence properly: $\pi/2\pi$.
- Find that author. Also see how the number $\pi^2/1000 \approx 0.027$.
- Some 200,000-300,000 10^{10} -tonne boulders have been "tilted" since the year 2000 AD due to global warming.
- Smaller words (relative to expected) will have just the word; the next two words smaller (every second or third letter words); the next two words three letters from the end;
- Coast (distance in kilometers) as fast as possible.

TRUE OR FALSE?

- The English climate is warmer than the Japanese.
- Brazil has the oldest language in English for about 500 years (since 1500 – 1700).
- English grammar was introduced by Vikings because Vikings came from England, and never Scotland.
- London is the oldest and largest royal residence under one roof in Europe.
- London Heathrow Airport is the world's largest airport.
- The name Ben Nevis means "biggest mountain".
- "The right answer for people over the age of 50" are many other older relatives.
- "I am" is the shortest word-like sentence in the English language.
- The weight "transferred" during English matadors' fights is the heaviest.