In my job I have to be careful with the cars and buses. I start work at 8.30 in the morning. I usually work at a pedestrian crossing. I always wear a red jacket and a cap.

Sometimes I carry a sign and a whistle. Children are little people and very funny and I love them, they greet me when they see me and I feel happy to help them.

I'm sixty years old and I will get retired soon. I have done this job for twenty-five years. I can do many repairs in the house and in the streets.

I can change a bulb or repair a radio or a bicycle.

I'm married to a nice woman. She cooks very well and loves me.

I'm in my fifties. I have got a family. I love my job. I have to walk and go upstairs to do my tasks. People give me tips. Sometimes I get very tired and dogs are a nuisance most of the times. They keep barking. Fortunately I haven't had any serious incident for the time being.
