

Oh, these old good days! Days of adventures, heroic deeds and brave knights.

Sometimes, adventures made [1] to find the bravest, the strongest knights in that kingdom.

To marry a princess and to get a kingdom, all knights had to kill a [2] and bring back milk or hair.

Being a king, you had a great chance someone stole a [3] in your food or drink. That's why many kings had people who taste the food and drink for kings.

If a person was captured, she could be easily considered [4] by church, and burned at the stake.

To be a knight you had to wear these 3 things: [5], [6] & [7].

All kings used a [8] when they wanted the executioner to torture their rivals or enemies.

All peasants suffered from [9] and [10] taken by greedy kings.

