

FIRST AID

ATTENDING PROBLEMS TO THE HIGHEST STANDARD: EXAMPLE OF A PERSON

RECOGNISING PROBLEMS AND CONSEQUENCES	ASSESSING THE SEVERITY	DECIDING ACTION	DEVELOPING PROBLEMS
--	---------------------------	--------------------	------------------------

1

- Recognise problems from the symptoms and signs (e.g. pain, swelling, redness, heat, loss of function)
- Do not use force to move the injured part
- Do not use force to move the injured part
- Do not use force to move the injured part

2

- Assess the situation and the severity of the injury
- Assess the situation and the severity of the injury
- Assess the situation and the severity of the injury
- Assess the situation and the severity of the injury

3

- Assess the situation and the severity of the injury
- Assess the situation and the severity of the injury
- Assess the situation and the severity of the injury
- Assess the situation and the severity of the injury

4

- Assess the situation and the severity of the injury
- Assess the situation and the severity of the injury
- Assess the situation and the severity of the injury
- Assess the situation and the severity of the injury

5

- Assess the situation and the severity of the injury
- Assess the situation and the severity of the injury
- Assess the situation and the severity of the injury
- Assess the situation and the severity of the injury

6

- Assess the situation and the severity of the injury
- Assess the situation and the severity of the injury
- Assess the situation and the severity of the injury
- Assess the situation and the severity of the injury

