On Christmas eve before you sleep,
go outside and take a peek.
Can you see them? Are they near?
If not, don't worry and have no fear.
This little bag is all you need.
It is full of magic reindeer feed.
Sprinkle on your lawn tonight.
As Santa's reindeer fly and roam.
This magic feed will lead them to your home.
