

I'm cozy and warm, and my clothes are kept neat. Check inside for a special treat!

I have petals and a lovely smell, find me growing where gardens dwell!

I have hands but no arms, a face but no eyes. Find me on the wall, I tell time as it flies!

Step on me when you come inside, I clean your shoes and do it with pride!

I'm filled with pages, words, and more. Open me up to explore!

I open and close, a box with a door. I keep your food fresh, that's what I'm for!
